House. In recess until Thursday. Committee on committees continues formation of committees.
Senate resumes fight over chairmanship of interstate commerce committee.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Progressives in the senate claimed today they have the power to repeal section 15-A of the Esch-Cummins law—the so-called guarantee section.

This is the underlying motive of their contest to make Senator La-Follette chairman of the interstate commerce committee.

After secret conferences at which word was brought from Senator La-Follette, who is still confined to his home by illness, it was decided to stand pat for a while at least and prevent the re-election of Cummins to the chairmanship of the committee.

Progressives admitted that they are unwillingly forced into the dispute over the chairmanship which deadlocked the senate yesterday, but now that they have been forced into the fight they have decided it would be better to force the issue to a finish rather than drop it.

With the help of the democrats
the progressives now claim LaFollette can depend on nine votes out of 17 in the interstate commerce committee to repeal clause 15A.

After a series of conferences, no material change was made in the deadlock which held the senate at adjournment yesterday.

Former Senator Rawson of Iowa and many republican leaders conferred with Senator Cummins in an effort to induce him to relinquish one of his jobs and break the deadlock, but he remained adamant.

TREATY WITH MEXICO SENT TO THE SENATE

Washington, Dec. 11.—President Coolidge today sent to the senate the treaty with Mexico.

This treaty carries out the details of the recognition agreement recently entered into.

The fighting in Mexico will not cause the United States government to postpone ratification of the treaty, it was said at the White House today.

KELLOGG NOMINATION CONFIRMED TODAY

Washington, Dec. 11.—By a vote of 55 to 9 the Senate today in executive session passed favorably upon the nomination of former Senator Kellogg to be ambassador to the court of St. James.

The fight against Kellogg was led by Senators Magnus Johnson and Henrik Shipstead, farmer-laborites from Minnesota, Kellogg's home state.

SENATE PROGRESSIVES TIGHTEN THEIR DEADLOCK

Washington, Dec. 11.—Senate progressives tightened their deadlock on the senate today.

When the fight over election of a chairman of the committee on interstate commerce was resumed not a vote was changed from the last ballot taken.

The seven stalwarts who stand behind Senator LaFollette, their leader for chairmanship of the committee which is to dominate rail legislation, clung to their posts.

CRITICISM OVER SELECTION MADE

CHOICE OF CLEVELAND AS RE-PUBLICAN CONVENTION CITY NOT PLEASING TO SOME

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 11.—Rumblings of discontent over President Cool-idge's designation of Cleveland as the next republican convention city grew in volume today as the republican national committee met to ratify the selection.

In response to the mutterings
from western and midwestern republicans, there was evidence that a sham battle was to be staged before Cleveland was named finally.

Some "insiders" on the committee indicated the battle would last for two days.

With Chicago definitely out of the running, Des Moines and San Francisco are the chief contenders against Cleveland. The Des Moines delegation headed by former Senator Rawson of Iowa is determined the selection shall not go by default. Armed with data showing the Iowa city would be well equipped in halls and hotels, Rawson intends to emphasize the political strategy of selecting Des Moines in the heart of the corn belt.

Northwestern and midwestern states point to the presidential preference of Cleveland as a technical error.

Cleveland to the western farmer is east they say. The psychological effect of holding the convention west of the Mississippi would be much better for republican success they believe.

ANOTHER ANGLE IN GHOUL-ARSON CASE

(By United Press)
Ft. Madison, Iowa, Dec. 11.—Another angle of the E. J. Sailstad ghoul-arson case in Superior, Wis., was apparently cleared up today when Mrs. James La Veer, of Janesville, Wis., positively identified an inmate of the state penitentiary here as her husband, James LaVeer.

LaVeer, a former employee of Sail-stad, disappeared at the time Sailstad was thought to have been burned to death in a summer cottage. Mrs. La-Veer had charged Sailstad murdered her husband and placed his body in the summer cottage before he set fire to the building.

But when Sailstad confessed after his arrest in Napa, Calif., it was the body of Allen McFee that he placed in the burned cottage, the question arose as to what had become of La-Veer.

The fight—was:
Cummins 41, Smith 39, LaFollette
7.

A total of 44 was needed for election and as this majority was obtained by none of the candidates, the chairman pro tem Senator Cummins immediately ordered another roll call.

The second ballot of the day and the fifth of the fight showed the same vote as the fourth. After three deadlock roll calls Senator Lodge, republican leader moved the chamber go into executive session to consider nominations.

KELLIHER KILLER CAUGHT AFTER HE SOUGHT ESCAPE

PERRITANO TORE IRON BAR
FROM BUNK AND LOOSED
BRICKS OF CELL

JANITOR DISCOVERED HIM TOSS-ING COAT AND HAT THROUGH OPENING

(By United Press)
Bemidji, Minn., Dec. 11.— Leonard Perritano, the Kelliher killer, was caught today just as he was about to escape from the Beltrami county jail.

The Italian killer killed Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders, Oscar Timmy and Marshal J. A. Wilson a few miles north of Kelliher November 5th. He was captured and jailed here after a three day search.

Perritano had torn an iron bar
from his bunk in the jail and loosed four tier of brick underneath the window in his cell. The hole was just large enough for Perritano to crawl out.

William S. Ritchey, janitor at the jail, saw Perritano throw his coat and hat through the opening. He called two citizens who were passing and they notified Sheriff Julius Johnson.

The sheriff dashed to Perritano's cell and the Italian was just making ready to get out. He evidently was carefully surveying the situation before making a dash for liberty as it was just daylight—7 a. m.

Questioned by Sheriff Johnson, Perritano declared the bricks were torn away by friends from the outside. The bricks were on the inside of his cell, however, and the sheriff is convinced Perritano did the work alone.

Graham H. Torrance, county attorney, will present murder charges against Perritano to the grand jury which was convened at 9 a. m. today.

New Step Taken In Reparations Settlement

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 11.—Formal announcement was made of a new step
looking toward settlement of the reparations question will be made
"very shortly," it was learned on
highest authority here today.

The official announcement is expected to be made by the United States government, but it also may simultaneously be made by the allies in Paris.

The announcement it is understood
will either be an agreement or a plan
for an expert inquiry into Germany's condition financially, or will point
to such an agreement.

Invitation Accepted
Washington, Dec. 11.—The United States has accepted the invitation of
the reparations commission for private American financial experts to take part in an inquiry into Germany's financial condition, President
Coolidge announced today.

The president read a formal statement to this effect to Washington
newspaper men assembled at the White House. In view of the fact that the United States is an important creditor of both Germany and
the allies and the importance of the economic recuperation of Europe,
the American government "looks with favor" on acceptance of the reparations commission, the statement said.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—Until settlement of the problem of war reparations, the farmers of America
"will continue to suffer losses that will total as much as or more than
the whole amount at stake in the
dispute," Gray Silver, Washington
representative of the American Farm Bureau federation, told the 217 delegates from 44 states attending the fifth annual meeting
of that organization.

Just back from a tour of inspection in Europe, Mr. Silver saw
much in the foreign situation that affects farmers of this country.
He declared that American agriculture needs a strong foreign policy that will tend to open new markets, a change in the tariff to prevent discrimination, and possible provision for international barter to open the German market.

DREAM DISCLOSES DROWNED MAN, GIRL

NATIONWIDE SEARCH FOR MO-TORISTS ENDS WITH FINDING

Muskegon, Mich., Dec. 11.—A dream by George Snyder, Spring Lake contractor, revealed the resting place of Harry H. Proctor, aged 33, prominent real estate dealer, and Miss Edna Fullager, aged 14, his companion who had been missing since the night of Oct. 30. They were found buried in the mud of Grand river, a few blocks from the Proctor home.
The bodies were recovered a few hours after the Proctor automobile
had been found in the river, where it had run off the dock.

The finding of the bodies ends a nationwide search for the two. On the night of Oct. 30 Proctor called
at the Fullager home on business,
and it is admitted he had been drinking. He hesitated to drive his automobile, and Edna finally consented to accompany him. They dropped out of sight.

Proctor conducted a real estate
business both in Grand Haven and Spring Lake and was prominent in society. Shortly after his disappearance, Mrs. Fullager obtained a warrant charging him with the abduction of her daughter.

"For three nights I dreamed of the resting place of the bodies," said Mr.
Snyder today at his home next door
to the Proctor residence. "I went to the officials and insisted that they drag, even drawing a sketch of the place where the car was located. Half an hour after dragging was started,
the car was found."

COOLIDGE MAY FIGHT HIRAM JOHNSON

LOT IN CALIFORNIA

Washington, Dec. 11.—President
Coolidge not only has definitely entered the race for the republican
presidential nomination next year,
but some of his friends are preparing
to put his name on the primary ballot in California, the home state of Senator Hiram Johnson.

Entrance of the president into the California primary was indicated as probable after a call at the White House by William H. Crocker, republican national committeeman
from California, and for years a member of the anti-Johnson republican faction of that state.

Mr. Crocker declined to confirm or deny that he had urged Mr. Coolidge
to give battle to Senator Johnson in his home state, but he declared that he wished his "chances of heaven
were as good as the chances of President Coolidge to carry California
against Hiram Johnson."

STITUTION

LEYS FROM GUARDS, QUAR-
TET ESCAPES

(By United Press)
Lansing, Kan., Dec. 11.—Four
convicts made a dramatic escape
from the Kansas state prison
here last night, the second group
to gain freedom from the penitentiary within a week.

One man was wounded attempting
to prevent the escape and a fifth
prisoner trying to make his getaway
was shot down as he scaled the prison
walls.

Shortly before midnight Charles
Kavanaugh, convict with a long record called for Edward Stewart, the
trusty in charge of the row of cells
at night and told him there was a leak in a water pipe.

Stewart unlocked the cell door to investigate and Kavanaugh's roommate, John Stitzel, leveled a revolver which apparently had been smuggled
in to him.

The two prisoners took Stewart's
keys, locked him in the cell, held up
Frank Henderson, a guard, and obtained additional keys, then locked
Henderson with Stewart.

After unlocking the cells of Brizille
Pratt, Celon Richardson and Walter Garry, the five rushed to the power house.

Alec Smith, a trusty life term,
was working in the power house.
The men ordered him to cut the prison wires. He refused. Richardson stabbed Smith, seriously wounding him.

The men turned the switch, throwing off the lights, and then obtained
a ladder from a locker and made
their way toward the prison wall.

Enroute they stopped at the telephone office and ordered Roy Reed,
operator, to destroy the switchboard.
Reed refused. They cursed him, but they had already wasted much time
and they went on toward the wall.

As the ladder was planked on the barriade, the lights were turned on.
Smith, seriously wounded, had made
his way to the hospital and spread
the alarm. A great number of powerful searchlights were turned on the fugitives. Guards fired a volley of shots from high powered rifles as the five reached the top. The prisoners
jumped from the top of the wall to the ground below, 35 feet. As Kavavanaugh leaped he was struck by a bullet and afterwards captured.

Kavanaugh was once sentenced
for a life term in the Minnesota state prison. His present term was a sentence from one to five years. Stitzel, convicted of manslaughter, was serving five years for grand larceny.

Garry was convicted of murder and was sentenced to 40 years. Richardson was sentenced from five to 15 years for grand larceny. Pratt was serving from 2 to 21 years for robbery.

EIGHT LEGGED PIG PROSPERS ON N. DAKOTA RANCH

Beach, N. D., Dec. 11.—An eight
legged pig, which has prospered,
grown and is apparently in better condition than its nine brothers and sisters, was born on the old Maltest
Cross ranch of Theodore Roosevelt in the Missouri river bottoms last April.
It has just been learned here, Fred
Lee, who is farming the old Roosevelt
place, declared his intention of going into the side show business with the animal. The eight legged pig is
the fastest thing on the ranch, he says. When the animal wants to step into "sporting range" all eight legs
are brought into play.

CLUBMAN SAYS SOCIAL STANDING PREVENTED GETTING FAIR TRIAL

Minneapolis, Dec. 11.—Counsel
for Charles P. Monahan, St. Paul clubman, now serving a 90-day
workhouse sentence on a charge
of driving an automobile while intoxicated, has filed notice of a motion for a new trial in traffic
court, alleging that "fancied financial and social standing of the defendant" had prevented a fair trial.

LAWRENCE MARTIN
(Copyright 1923 by United Press)
Washington, Dec. 11.—Murray
Crane picked the manager of President Coolidge's pre-convention campaign for the republican nominating.
Although Crane has been dead for some time it was more than any other who was responsible for William H. Butler's rise to a position
politically where he was the logical
man to take charge of the organiza-
Cleveland convention to Mr. Coolidge.

"Who is this man Butler," the politicians began asking when it was announced he had been put in charge
of the Coolidge organization.
They don't know him. Many have met him since he became Massachusetts manager of the republican national committee when Secretary of War Weeks retired some time ago.
They saw a gray-haired, strong-jaw-
ed, sturdy man of 62, who was pleasant but very reserved. Over night
he became a central figure in the national political drama and politicians are "looking him up" and trying to classify him.

Butler's life rewards the inquirer
with nothing spectacular. He is in his way as much of an enigma as Mr.
Coolidge was when he was raised to the presidency. He is hedged about with very much the same New England inhibitions which guard the president. Assuredly he speaks the president's language politically and otherwise.

He comes of New England seafar-
ing stock. His father was a sea captain and later became a minister of the gospel. He had much to make him take a serious outlook on life,
and indeed he was serious.

GRADING GRAIN STANDARD CRITICIZED

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 11.—A delegation of 10 from Minnesota, Wisconsin and North and South Dakota complained to President Coolidge today about the refusal of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace to modify the present standards for grading grain. They said unless the present standards were changed they would ask to have congress regulate the standards. The president said he would discuss the question with Wallace. The delegation was headed by O. P. B. Jacobson, railroad and warehouse commissioner of Minnesota.

SUPREME COURT ACTS IN ODD CASE

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 10.—The supreme court today upheld the Utah Industrial commission in granting compensation to Mary Ann Parramore, Salt Lake City, for the death of her husband, Joseph Parramore, while on his way to the plant of the Cudahy
Packing company.
The company contested the Utah
court claiming no responsibility on the ground that Parramore was killed
in a crossing accident while on his way to work, neither the conveyance,
the locomotive or the premises being
the property or under the control of the company.

Mexico City, Dec. 11.—Revolutionary forces under General
Sanchez which have engaged
federal troops in a combat for three days at Jalapa, capital of Vera Cruz, were reported today to be extending the scope of their operations.

The rebellion in Vera Cruz appears to have proven more difficult to put down than had been anticipated.

After capturing Jalapa, then losing it to the federales, a strong insurrection force attacked repeatedly
and the tide of battle was swaying uncertainly when last reports were received.

President Obregon has arrived at Iratuato with federal cavalry which is being concentrated for a drive to crush the rebellion under General Estrada at Jalisco.

Obregon is reported to have seen Ramon Ross, a member of the recent recognition conference on an "urgent" official mission to the United States.

With the rebellion proving morserious than at first expected, price
have mounted so rapidly in Mexico
City that a demand for a food dictatorship has arisen. The Mexican federation of labor prepared to take action against the profiteers.

Americans Seek to Obtain Griffis' Release

Chicago, Dec. 11.—A nation-wide

tenced to 19 months in a German prison for the attempted kidnapping of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, wealthy

people would consider his release a

REP. GIRLING HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Dec. 11.—Representative Thomas R. Girling, Robbinsdale, was seriously injured in an automobile accident last night.
Details of the crash were not reported either to Minneapolis police or to the Hennepin county sheriff's office.

Girling was driving with Cornelius
Dwyer of the John Wunder company,
operators of a stone quarry when
the machine went into the ditch and overturned. Passing motorists removed the two men from underneath
the car. Dwyer although badly
shaken up, was able to go home.
Girling was taken to St. Mary's hospital. Early today it was reported
his condition was serious, but physicians declared he probably will recover.

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 11.—Formal announcement was made of a new step
looking toward settlement of the
reparations question will be made
"very shortly," it was learned on
highest authority here today.

The official announcement is expected to be made by the United States government, but it also may
simultaneously be made by the allies in Paris.

The announcement it is understood
will either be an agreement or a plan
for an expert inquiry into Germany's
condition financially, or will point

Washington, Dec. 11.—The United States has accepted the invitation of
the reparations commission for private American financial experts to
take part in an inquiry into Germany's financial condition, President
Coolidge announced today.

The president read a formal state-
newspaper men assembled at the White House. In view of the fact that the United States is an important creditor of both Germany and
the allies and the importance of the
economic recuperation of Europe,
the American government "looks with favor" on acceptances from the reparations commission, the statement said.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—Until settlement of the problem of war repara-
tions, the farmers of America
"will continue to suffer losses that
representative of the American
217 delegates from 44 states attending the fifth annual meeting
of that organization.

Just back from a tour of inspection in Europe, Mr. Silver saw
much in the foreign situation that
affects farmers of this country.
He declared that American agriculture needs a strong foreign
markets, a change in the tariff to
prevent discrimination, and possible provision for international
barter to open the German market.

DREAM DISCLOSES

DROWNED MAN, GIRL

NATIONWIDE SEARCH FOR MO-TORISTS ENDS WITH FINDING

Muskegon, Mich., Dec. 11.—A
dream by George Snyder, Spring Lake
tractor, revealed the resting place
of Harry H. Proctor, aged 33, prominent real estate dealer, and Miss
Edna Fullager, aged 14, his companion who had been missing since the
buried in the mud of Grand river, a
few blocks from the Proctor home.
The bodies were recovered a few
hours after the Proctor automobile
had been found in the river, where it
had run off the dock.

The finding of the bodies ends a nationwide search for the two. On the night of Oct. 30 Proctor called
at the Fullager home on business,
and it is admitted he had been drink-
ing. He hesitated to drive his automobile, and Edna finally consented
to accompany him. They dropped
out of sight.

Proctor conducted a real estate
business both in Grand Haven and
society. Shortly after his disappearance, Mrs. Fullager obtained a warrant charging him with the abduction of her daughter.

"For three nights I dreamed of the
resting place of the bodies," said Mr.
Snyder today at his home next door
to the Proctor residence. "I went to
drag, even drawing a sketch of the place where the car was located.
Half an hour after dragging was started, the car was found."

Washington, Dec. 11.—President
Coolidge not only has definitely entered the race for the republican
presidential nomination next year,
but some of his friends are preparing
to put his name on the primary bal-
Senator Hiram Johnson.

probable after a call at the White House by William H. Crocker, republican national committeeman
from California, and for years a
member of the anti-Johnson republican faction of that state.

Mr. Crocker declined to confirm or deny that he had urged Mr. Coolidge
to give battle to Senator Johnson in his home state, but he declared that
he wished his "chances of heaven"
were as good as the chances of Presi-
against Hiram Johnson.

STITUTION

LEYS FROM GUARDS, QUAR-
TET ESCAPES

(By United Press)

Lansing, Kan., Dec. 11.—Four
convicts made a dramatic escape
from the Kansas state prison
here last night, the second group
to gain freedom from the penitentiary within a week.

One man was wounded attempting
to prevent the escape and a fifth
prisoner trying to make his getaway
walls.

Shortly before midnight Charles
Kavanaugh, convict with a long record called for Edward Stewart, the
trusty in charge of the row of cells
at night and told him there was a
leak in a water pipe.

Stewart unlocked the cell door to investigate and Kavanaugh's room-
mate, John Stitzel, leveled a revolver
which apparently had been smuggled
in to him.

The two prisoners took Stewart's
keys, locked him in the cell, held up
Frank Henderson, a guard, and ob-
Henderson with Stewart.

Pratt, Colon Richardson and Walter Geary, the five rushed to the power house.

Alec Smith, a trusty life term,
was working in the power house.
The men ordered him to cut the
prison wires. He refused. Richardson stabbed Smith, seriously wounding him.

The men turned the switch, throw-
a ladder from a locker and made
their way toward the prison wall.

Enroute they stopped at the telephone office and ordered Roy Reed,
operator, to destroy the switchboard.
Reed refused. They cursed him, but
they had already wasted much time
and they went on toward the wall.

As the ladder was planked on the
barricade, the lights were turned on.
Smith, seriously wounded, had made
jumped from the top of the wall to
the ground below, 35 feet. As Ka-
vavanaugh leaped he was struck by a
bullet and afterwards captured.

for a life term in the Minnesota state
prison. His present term was a sentence from one to five years. Stitzel,
convicted of manslaughter, was serving five years for grand larceny.

Geary was convicted of murder
and was sentenced to 49 years. Richardson was sentenced from five to 15
years for grand larceny. Pratt was serving from 2 to 21 years for robbery.

EIGHT LEGGED PIG PROSPERS ON N. DAKOTA RANCH

Beach, N. D., Dec. 11.—An eight
legged pig, which has prospered,
grown and is apparently in better
condition than its nine brothers and
sisters, was born on the old Maltest Cross ranch of Theodore Roosevelt in the Missouri river bottoms last April.
It has just been learned here. Fred
Lee, who is farming the old Roosevelt
place, declared his intention of going into the side show business with
says. When the animal wants to step
into "sporting range" all eight legs

CLUBMAN SAYS SOCIAL STANDING PREVENTED GETTING FAIR TRIAL

Minneapolis, Dec. 11.—Counsel
for Charles P. Monahan, St. Paul
clubman, now serving a 90-day
workhouse sentence on a charge
of driving an automobile while intoxicated, has filed notice of a
motion for a new trial in traffic
court, alleging that "fancied financial and social standing of the de-
trial.

LAWRENCE MARTIN

(Copyright 1923 by United Press)
Washington, Dec. 11.—Murray
Crane picked the manager of President Coolidge's pre-convention campaign for the republican nominatio.

Although Crane has been dead for some time it was he more than any other who was responsible for William H. Butler's rise to a position
politically where he was the logical
man to take charge of the organiza-
Cleveland convention to Mr. Coolidge.

"Who is this man Butler," the politicians began asking when it was announced he had been put in charge
of the Coolidge organization.
They don't know him. Many have
met him since he became Massachusetts manager of the republican national committee when Secretary of War Weeks retired some time ago.
They saw a gray-haired, strong-jaw-
ed, sturdy man of 62, who was pleasant but very reserved. Over night
he became a central figure in the
national political drama and politicians are "looking him up" and trying to classify him.

his way as much of an enigma as Mr.
Coolidge was when he was raised to
the presidency. He is hedged about
with very much the same New Eng-
president. Assuredly he speaks the
otherwise.

He comes of New England seafar-
ing stock. His father was a sea captain and later became a minister of
the gospel. He had much to make
him take a serious outlook on life,
and indeed he was serious.

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 11.—A delegation of 10 from Minnesota, Wisconsin and North and South Dakota complained to President Coolidge today about the refusal of Secretary of Agriculture
Wallace to modify the present standards for grading grain. They said
unless the present standards were
gress regulate the standards. The president said he would discuss the
question with Wallace. The delegation was headed by O. P. B. Jacob-
son, railroad and warehouse commissioner of Minnesota.

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 10.—The supreme court today upheld the Utah Industrial commission in granting compensation to Mary Ann Parramore, Salt Lake City, for the death of her husband, Joseph Parramore, while on his way to the plant of the Cudahy
Packing company.

The company contested the Utah
court claiming no responsibility on
in a crossing accident while on his
way to work, neither the conveyance,
the locomotive or the premises being
the property or under the control of
the company.

REBELLION IN VERA CRUZ A DIFFICULT ONE TO SQUELCH

PRESIDENT OBREGON ARRIVE AT IRATUATO WITH FEDER-AL CAVALRY

(By United Press)

Mexico City, Dec. 11.—Revolutionary forces under General
Sanchez which have engaged
federal troops in a combat for
three days at Jalapa, capital of Vera Cruz, were reported today to be extending the scope of their operations.

The rebellion in Vera Cruz appears to have proven more difficult
to put down than had been anticipated.

After capturing Jalapa, then losing it to the federals, a strong insurrection force attacked repeatedly,
and the tide of battle was swaying
uncertainly when last reports were
received.

President Obregon has arrived at Iratuato with federal cavalry which
is being concentrated for a drive to crush the rebellion under General Es-
trada at Jalisco.

Obregon is reported to have sent Ramon Ross, a member of the recent
recognition conference on an "ur-
States.

With the rebellion proving more serious than at first expected, prices
have mounted so rapidly in Mexico
City that a demand for a food dictatorship has arisen. The Mexican
federation of labor prepared to take action against the profiteers.

Americans Seek to Obtain Griffis' Release

Chicago, Dec. 11.—A nation-wide move is under way to bring about the release of Lieutenant Corliss Hooven Griffis, former American soldier, sentenced to 19 months in a German pri-
Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, wealthy draft evader, Dr. James Whitney Hall, president of the Iroquois club, has announced. One of the activities, he said, will be to obtain signatures to a petition addressed to the German government asserting that the American people would consider his release a most gracious act.

RUM BATTLES LEAVE GORY TRAIL

(By United Press)

one persons were killed, seven of the local dry agents and 14 bootleggers and rum runners—in gun battles as a result of attempts to enforce the prohibition laws, in Ohio thus far in 1923, a newspaper survey revealed today.

REP. GIRLING HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

(By United Press)

Minneapolis, Dec. 11.—Representative Thomas R. Girling, Robbins-
dale, was seriously injured in an automobile accident last night.

ported either to Minneapolis police
office.

Girling was driving with Cornelius
Dwyer of the John Wunder company,
operators of a stone quarry when
the machine went into the ditch and
overturned. Passing motorists removed the two men from underneath
the car. Dwyer although badly
shaken up, was able to go home.
Girling was taken to St. Mary's hos-
his condition was serious, but physi-

Whitewash for Chicken House Easily Prepared

A whitewash that disinfects, kills mites and brightens the poultry house is made as follows: Shake five quarts of rock lime with hot water to about the consistency of cream. To this add one pint of caustic soda or soda ash, and one quart of kerosene. Stir thoroughly and dilute with twice its own volume of water. Apply with either spray pump or whitewash brush. When properly prepared, this solution serves three purposes: the zeolite acts as a disinfectant, killing the germs; the kerosene penetrates the wood, destroying the mites, and the lime whitens the walls, making the building sweet and light.

Strain More Important Than Breed of Chickens

There is no "best breed" of chickens. Breed does not play half the part that strain does. Pick a strain that has a record behind it, either for eggs or fancy—whatever you desire—buy directly from the principal breeder of that strain, or from stock direct from his strain and buy as good stock as you can afford.

Making the Cactus Pay.

Each year our huge fields of cactus on the western plains are made to yield some new form of profit that will eventually make our waste land and its sole product truly valuable. The latest use of the prickly plant has been the turning of it into good cattle food. The thorns would make rough eating, of course, but they may either be burned off by gasoline torch or softened by being chopped with the plant and allowed to steep in the juices, so that cattle can consume the whole in combination with other foods. It has been found that such food increases the supply of milk. The glutinous material obtained from the plant's leaves gives promise of becoming a valuable paper size, and the small red fruits are yielding a profitable supply of alcohol and a very excellent vegetable coloring matter for many purposes.

Basis of Dairy Profits in Food, Feed and Care

"One cow, well fed and cared for, will make more milk and profit than two or more cows poorly fed and cared for," is the keynote expressed in Wisconsin Circular 151 by George C. Humphrey of the animal husbandry department of the Wisconsin College of Agriculture.

"Don't try to keep more cows than it is possible to feed and care for well. Treat the cows kindly. Rough treatment greatly reduces the amount of milk she produces.

"Feed liberal rations. Make this possible by laying in a store of good grains such as corn, barley and oats and some alfalfa or clover hay. These feeds make a good combination when fed with roots or silage.

"Provide plenty of fresh water which is cool but not too cold. It takes a lot of water to make milk so it must be provided.

"Protect the cows from cold, chilling weather and storms and dampness. It helps to increase milk production.

"Her first feed should be five or six quarts of ground oats and wheat bran."

These are but a few of the many timely suggestions offered by Mr. Humphrey in the bulletin, which with the valuable rations suggested make this a most desirable little pamphlet for the dairyman.

Inflamed Udder of Cow May Be Avoided by Feed

It is seldom, if ever, necessary to milk a cow before freshening. If the bag is badly swollen and milk drips from the teats, it is sometimes a good idea to relieve the bag by drawing a little milk but the mere presence of inflammation and "cank" in the udder does not necessarily mean that the milking should be done. It is much better to leave the cow alone in this regard as the last few days before freshening the cow secretes a peculiar quality of milk called colostrum in her udder, which is very essential to the new-born calf as it acts as a purgative and helps to clear out his system. Excessive difficulty from inflammation and caked udders may be avoided by giving laxative feeds.

Source of Sediment.

Most of the sediment in milk comes from the bodies of cows and consists of hairs, manure, bedding, etc.

Improve Quality of Milk.

A whitewash that disinfects, kills mites and brightens the poultry house is made as follows: Slake five quarts of rock lime with hot water to about the consistency of cream. To this add one pint of caustic soda or soda ash, and one quart of kerosene. Stir thoroughly and dilute with twice its own volume of water. Apply with either spray pump or whitewash brush. When properly prepared, this solution serves three purposes: the zeolite acts as a disinfectant, killing the germs; the kerosene penetrates the wood, destroying the mites, and the lime whitens the walls, making the building sweet and light.

There is no "best breed" of chickens. Breed does not play half the part that strain does. Pick a strain that has a record behind it, either for eggs or fancy—whatever you desire—buy directly from the principal breeder of that strain, or from stock direct from his strain and buy as good stock as you can afford.

Making the Cactus Pay.
Each year our huge fields of cactus on the western plains are made to yield some new form of profit that will eventually make our waste land and its sole product truly valuable. The latest use of the prickly plant has been the turning of it into good cattle food. The thorns would make rough eating, of course, but they may either be burned off by gasoline torch or softened by being chopped with the plant and allowed to steep in the juices, so that cattle can consume the whole in combination with other foods. It has been found that such food increases the supply of milk. The glutinous material obtained from the plant's leaves gives promise of becoming a valuable paper size, and the small red fruits are yielding a profitable supply of alcohol and a very excellent vegetable coloring matter for many purposes.

"One cow, well fed and cared for, will make more milk and profit than two or more cows poorly fed and cared for," is the keynote expressed in Wisconsin Circular 151 by George C. Humphrey of the animal husbandry department of the Wisconsin College of Agriculture.

"Don't be satisfied to buy or raise anything but good dairy cows."

"Feed liberal rations. Make this possible by laying in a store of good grains such as corn, barley and oats and some alfalfa or clover hay. These feeds make a good combination when fed with roots or silage."

"Protect the cows from cold, chilling weather and storms and dampness. It helps to increase milk production."

"Give the mother of the new-born calf a pall of warm water—she is feverish and this will relieve her thirst."

"Her first feed should be five or six quarts of ground oats and wheat bran."

These are but a few of the many timely suggestions offered by Mr. Humphrey in the bulletin, which with the valuable rations suggested make this a most desirable little pamphlet for the dairyman.

It is seldom, if ever, necessary to milk a cow before freshening. If the bag is badly swollen and milk drips from the teats, it is sometimes a good idea to relieve the bag by drawing a little milk but the mere presence of inflammation and "cank" in the udder does not necessarily mean that the milking should be done. It is much better to leave the cow alone in this regard as the last few days before freshening the cow secretes a peculiar quality of milk called colostrum in her udder, which is very essential to the new-born calf as it acts as a purgative and helps to clear out his system. Excessive difficulty from inflammation and caked udders may be avoided by giving laxative feeds.

Source of Sediment.
Most of the sediment in milk comes from the bodies of cows and consists of hairs, manure, bedding, etc.

Improve Quality of Milk.

TEACHERS AS HONOR GUESTS

Rotary Club Entertains Pedagogues of Public Schools at Dinner in Ransford Hotel

PRES. DR. BEISE PRESIDES

Rotarian Rev. Harry G. Walker, Dean of Trinity Episcopal Church, Gave Eloquent Address

Teachers of the public schools were the honor guests of the Rotary club at the annual dinner tendered Monday evening at the Ransford hotel. Every speaker and even the songs carried the message that Rotary of Brainerd appreciates the quiet but nevertheless heroic and painstaking work carried out day after day by the teaching staff of the city schools. They mold minds and lay the foundation of citizenship. Their patient hands take plastic material and make of it models of intelligence.

President Dr. R. A. Beise presided with his usual ability and kindness, and his introductory remarks were made after the large assemblage had enjoyed the carnival spirit and tossed toy balloons about from diner to diner, to the accompaniment of spirited music by Graham's orchestra.

The doctor took up his own school days and said his first two teachers left a striking recollection, but forgot to state where it had been registered. The teacher, said the doctor, really sees more of the hopeful than the parents of the children and so impresses them more and has more influence. In fact, some parents feel quite relieved when the children are sent to school and the burden of supervision is transferred elsewhere.

Miss Carol Dean was to play a violin solo, but was excused because some fat Rotarian had inadvertently sat on the instrument and broken all the strings, as explained by Dr. Beise.

Miss Mary Tornstrom mentioned problems of the school room and pleaded for a larger and better Y. M. C. A. to accommodate the play instinct in pupils after school hours.

Dr. Karl H. Hoorn, the poet laureate of Brainerd Rotary, recited original verses dedicated to the school teachers. Applause greeted every telling point made.

Miss Louise Barrett gave a most thoughtful address, and a witty top. She begged parents to be better acquainted with their children than the teachers and mentioned instances of children revealing things to teachers which they did not "dare to tell father." She, as did Miss Tornstrom later, voiced appreciation of the courtesies extended by the Rotarians.

Supt. W. C. Cobb made a lengthy explanation of something that had occurred at the last annual dinner for teachers, during which he had incurred the wrath of a song leader. After Mr. Cobb's humorous explanation, conditions were worse than the original status quo.

Carl Zapffe read a poetic effusion and made of it a most dramatic reading, full of notes and explanations which he added to reinforce his delivery.

The gridiron skit of the evening was the advent of John Holvick, announced as the senator from Podunk. With Andy Gump gestures, a remarkable delivery, and a wealth of words, John proceeded to explain the political situation as it eddied around himself as center. Among the reforms he promised was taxing the bachelors and creating an annuity for spinsters; doubling the salaries of the school teachers (applause); doubling pay of railway employees (applause from another corner); etc., etc. And with all the reforms and increased appropriations for this and that, the Senator also promised reducing the taxes to the vanishing point.

The orator of the evening, Rotarian Rev. Harry G. Walker, Dean of the Trinity Episcopal church, then delivered an inspiring address on Rotary and in numerous illustrations showed Rotary to be a child of Christianity. He traced its origin from the days of Paul Harris to its present international growth.

The two vital points in religion are to love God and love man, and Rotary represents half of it. He explained the qualifications for membership, the duties and privileges of Rotary, the immolation of self, the creed of service, that he profits most who serves best. He paid a tribute to the teachers, and praised their good works.

Dr. Beise, in conclusion thanked the speaker, all who took part in the program and the teachers for attending. During the course of the evening there were songs galore with John F. Woodhead as leader. The song program started with the Star Spangled Banner and concluded with "Good Night, Ladies" and "America."

Are your children anxiously waiting for that phonograph or piano. Remember how those things pleased and tickled you pink, when you were a child. Hall's big music sale.

PELICAN CREEK RIFFLES

I saw the game warden go up on the fresh snow. He says it is a good time to track up the trackers.

With the good weather Duff Kimball is making good progress on his new house. Fritz Sekel is head carpenter.

Gould and Gordon are busy sawing out lumber for new lake cottages to be built in the spring and summer. There sure is going to be lots of them built up north on the Merrifield road.

We all are pleased to see Oscar Nordby back home from the St. Joseph hospital in Brainerd, after a long siege of typhoid fever. He now is able to walk to the nearby neighbors.

Mrs. Ike Miller of Velvet Beach is making extensive improvements in the way of new buildings, new dining hall and kitchen, assembly hall, cottage for the help, besides several cottages for their guests. Velvet Beach will be one of the most beautiful spots in Crow Wing county on the shore of Pelican lake.

Here is what happened on the Merrifield road last week constructed by Walter J. Murphy. A gentleman in a big fast car met Cod Kimball just north of his house and asked him how far it was to Merrifield. Cod asked him which way he came from and the answer was Brainerd. Cod told him he had come through it. "How far back?" he said. Cod told him fourteen miles. Well, I did not see it, and there is where I wanted to stop and see a man. He was told Merrifield was only eight miles from Brainerd. "Well I was going so like H—did not see it," he said. He jumped out and measured his gas to see if he had enough to get back and found out he had not. We parted and he went to Cross lake, filled up and came back in about fifteen minutes. The way he was going I wonder if he saw it going back. He was from New York City. No wonder he could not see Merrifield. I would advise Mayor Quin Parker to put a traffic cop on at the corner at the state road. Now you can see what may happen on a No. 1 dirt road.

Why Men Succeed

Why is it that certain men succeed right where so many men are failing? Why do comparatively few men make millions while more millions are simply struggling to make ends meet?

For some time I have been watching the lives or activities of a few successful men in business, and a close study of the situation has revealed to me a so-called "secret."

In our more thoughtful moments we all entertain an increasing interest and an abiding sentiment for the men who fail to make more than just a living; and somehow we often feel that the dividends in life go to men who have apparently had "good luck"—had things come their way without great effort.

This country will have no pause in its progress while it has constructive men of the Burbank stamp. What Edison has given is invested in all men. The life of Lincoln is a legacy. Our constructive men are the fortifications of America's permanent progress.

In his early days, Mr. Hill was appointed traffic agent of a short-line railroad—a railroad that could only claim, as its biggest asset, a right of way. One day he rode over the line and discovered the wonderful Red River Valley, where the farmers had herds of sickly cattle. Immediately his constructive mind began to work, and he sent to England and bought a shipload of pure-bred bulls. Then and there Hill started the real foundation for a new and world-known Empire of Opportunity.

Where Hill found prairies covered with pinto, he introduced Percherons. He belonged to the constructive crew, not to the wrecking gang. He was a builder from the foundation up. All great Americans are constructive.

In an almost unknown Wyoming mining camp, twenty-one years ago, J. C. Penney started his first link in a chain of stores—a chain that now numbers 475 links—475 separate stores scattered over 32 states. How well he welded the first link is reflected in the strength of his present powerful business chain. He, too, began by building right—began by building a small but solid success. He was "constructive" from the start.

About two years ago Mr. Penney cast about for some other constructive problem. He found that less than 3 per cent of the beef and dairy cattle of this country are pure-bred, and these are his "constructive" words: "What line of endeavor offers a greater field for real constructive work than that of breeding pure-bred cattle?"

America owes its accredited achievements to the men who have had the "constructive" vision, and then the pluck to persevere until successful.—The Silent Partner.

Friction Matches.

Friction matches first came into use in 1833, and as late as 1850 were regarded as too dangerous to be transported by rail. The first sulphur matches put on the market came in square blocks of wood split well down, from which individual matches might be broken. When ignited, a most offensive sulphur odor arose. The first individual matches, put up in small boxes, were imported from Sweden in the early eighties, and were a great improvement over the old sulphur match.

Cod told him he had come through it. "How far back?" he said. Cod told him fourteen miles. Well, I did not see it, and there is where I wanted to stop and see a man. He was told Merrifield was only eight miles from Brainerd. "Well I was going so like H—did not see it," he said. He jumped out and measured his gas to see if he had enough to get back and found out he had not. We parted and he went to Cross lake, filled up and came back in about fifteen minutes. The way he was going I wonder if he saw it going back. He was from New York City. No wonder he could not see Merrifield. I would advise Mayor Quin Parker to put a traffic cop on at the corner at the state road. Now you can see what may happen on a No. 1 dirt road.

Why is it that certain men succeed right where so many men are failing? Why do comparatively few men make millions while more millions are simply struggling to make ends meet?

For some time I have been watching the lives or activities of a few successful men in business, and a close study of the situation has revealed to me a so-called "secret."

In our more thoughtful moments we all entertain an increasing interest and an abiding sentiment for the men who fail to make more than just a living; and somehow we often feel that the dividends in life go to men who have apparently had "good luck"—had things come their way without great effort.

But this is a mistake. The men who are permanently prosperous are prosperous for a real reason. They are the constructive men. "Constructive" is the word.

This country will have no pause in its progress while it has constructive men of the Burbank stamp. What Edison has given is invested in all men. The life of Lincoln is a legacy. Our constructive men are the fortifications of America's permanent progress.

I shall never forget a time, years ago, when James J. Hill, who created the Great Northwest—the "Hill Country"—never forget the constructive lesson learned from his life.

In his early days, Mr. Hill was appointed traffic agent of a short-line railroad—a railroad that could only claim, as its biggest asset, a right of way. One day he rode over the line and discovered the wonderful Red River Valley, where the farmers had herds of sickly cattle. Immediately his constructive mind began to work, and he sent to England and bought a shipload of pure-bred bulls. Then and there Hill started the real foundation for a new and world-known Empire of Opportunity.

Where Hill found prairies covered with pintos, he introduced Percherons. He belonged to the constructive crew, not to the wrecking gang. He was a builder from the foundation up. All great Americans are constructive.

In an almost unknown Wyoming mining camp, twenty-one years ago, J. C. Penney started his first link in a chain of stores—a chain that now numbers 475 links—475 separate stores scattered over 33 states. How well he welded the first link is reflected in the strength of his present powerful business chain. He, too, began by building right—began by building a small but solid success. He was "constructive" from the start.

About two years ago Mr. Penney cast about for some other constructive problem. He found that less than 3 per cent of the beef and dairy cattle of this country are pure-bred, and these are his "constructive" words: "What line of endeavor offers a greater field for real constructive work than that of breeding pure-bred cattle?"

devoting his successful life to the important idea of improvement.

America owes its accredited achievements to the men who have had the "constructive" vision, and then the pluck to persevere until successful.—The Silent Partner.

Friction Matches.

Friction matches first came into use in 1833, and as late as 1850 were regarded as too dangerous to be transported by rail. The first sulphur matches put on the market came in square blocks of wood split well down, from which individual matches might be broken. When ignited, a most offensive sulphur odor arose. The first individual matches, put up in small boxes, were imported from Sweden in the early eighties, and were a great improvement over the old sulphur match.

CREAM WILL CLEAR A STUFFED-UP HEAD

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed because of nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing and healing swollen inflamed membranes and you get instant relief.

Try this. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Your clogged nostrils open right up; your head is clear; no more hawking or snuffling. County fifty. All the stuffiness, dryness, struggling for breath is gone. You feel fine.—Adv.

THE GREAT OUT-OF-DOORS

Too long has Minnesota thought of its great out-of-doors as something to be viewed and enjoyed only in the summer and fall months when the tourist season is at its height. True there was also a deer season, but short in duration when compared with the tourist season.

The State Game and Fish Commission is now bringing to the attention of sportsmen the joys of a trip through the north woods, and urges the boys to dust off their snowshoes.

In a letter to the Dispatch, Chief Game Warden D. A. Peterson calls attention to the invitation extended by James F. Gould, Commissioner of the State Game and Fish Commission, to the people of our state, and especially the sportsmen, to make a trip with Leo Chosa as guide through the Superior Game Refuge.

"This trip surely will be an educational one," continues Mr. Peterson, "and I would like very much to have the Dispatch represented on one of these trips."

"Brainerd has a group of sportsmen and among the many are W. H. Cleary, Dr. Thabes, George Trent, Sr., Harold Kalland, Henry and Peter Rosko and John F. Woodhead and a lot of others I could name by the hundreds."

"If you can't go, I wish you would persuade one or two good fellows from Brainerd to make the trip where they will actually see wild life."

"For your information I wish to say that we have seventeen game wardens in the refuge at the present time, where deer, moose, beaver and all fur-bearing animals abound. Almost everybody loves the out-of-door life."

"Can we count on one or two good sportsmen from Brainerd to make the trip? Kindly let me hear from you."

The great northern wilderness of Minnesota offers unbounded opportunities to sportsmen and naturalists to study game life in the winter months. As stated by the Game and Fish Commission, Mr. Chosa will conduct the department's guests through the Superior state game refuge, planning to make three such trips after Christmas, each trip covering about 150 miles. Dog teams will haul extra equipment, but the travelers must supply locomotion for themselves, namely a pair of snowshoes. The guide service will be free, and persons wishing to go on one of these trips may file their applications with the state game and fish commissioner.

"I believe the sportsmen of Minnesota can profit by visiting this wilderness in Northeastern Minnesota this winter and by studying conditions in that region," said Commissioner Gould.

"Our invitation," said the commissioner, "is open to the department's critics as well as its friends. Representatives of all sportsmen's organizations, and particularly the Izaak Walton League of America, are invited to avail themselves of this opportunity."

"Almost everybody loves the out-of-doors and likes to talk about wild life," said Leo Chosa, supervisor of wardens in the Superior state game refuge, "but it is surprising how little actual experience many persons have had. It is becoming more and more popular to spend a few weeks of the year in the open, but the average vacationist chooses the summer or early fall for such an outing. He knows little of the wild life of the forest and field unless he has observed it in the winter. Members of sportsmen's clubs and others who like to rear up on their hind legs in meeting and discuss this subject may add considerable to their knowledge of the subject by taking one of these snowshoe trips in the forest. I believe there are many who will be glad for such an opportunity."

THAT INCOME TAX BLANK

It is good news to many taxpayers that the income tax blank is to be simplified. Hitherto novices have blithely attacked the preparation of a report only to be tangled in a maze of regulations that left them dizzy in the first round. No one can ever compute how much this income tax blank compilation by taxpayers has stimulated the paper industry and the manufacture of lead pencils. It is even reported that some sanitariums have places established to cure almost hopeless cases of income reporters.

Next year there will be one small sheet for the majority of taxpayers, with instructions on one side and on the other side the spaces for entering the essential facts. Income sources are reduced and clarified until they resolve themselves into three general classes, covering first salaries and wages, or earned income; second, interest and dividends on bank deposits, mortgages, bonds, etc., or investment income; third, "other income."

It is computed that 60 or 70 per cent of the taxpayers require this blank. Of course, as everybody realizes, the hardest job is to compute a tax which you owe after you have spent everything taxable recorded.

A TRIBUTE TO HARDING

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE's tribute to the late President Harding, voiced at the beginning of his message to congress, revealed the innermost feelings of the former. President Harding, it will be remembered, early established the precedent of having the vice president made a member of his cabinet council.

The world knew President Harding's kindness and his humanity, his greatness and character, said President Coolidge. "He has left his mark upon history. He has made justice more certain and peace more secure."

"We who were associated with him could not resume together the functions of our office without pausing for a moment, and in his memory recommitting ourselves to the service of our country. He is gone. We remain. It is our duty under the inspiration of his example, to take up the burdens which he was permitted to lay down, and to develop and support the wise principles of government which he represented."

LOUD SCREAM HERE TOO

"A LOUD scream was heard Friday night when the Eagles discovered that the site for their new aerie on the cliff at Fourth Avenue South and Eighth Street was all paid for," says the Minneapolis Journal in a paragraph of its editorial page.

The same kind of a scream of joy and exultation will shortly boom from the confines of Brainerd when the Elks discover that a $750 balance will soon be paid on its Elks home site, corner of South Sixth and Laurel streets. That last payment is all that now bars complete ownership, and the liquidation of the indebtedness will be made the occasion of a proper celebration.

TAX RELIEF DESIRED

As stated by Senator Magnus Johnson, the public is tired of paying "nuisance taxes." Every family goes to the movies or to the shows, and it must pay the federal tax on amusements. All the other taxes, specials laid on during the war, have persisted in many cases.

Business, labor and every other element of our economic life is weary of high taxes. As every one pays taxes in some manner or another, any kind of tax relief will in the end affect us all.

A CITY WITH A VISION

A CITY like a man needs a vision to lead on to better things. Chicago, which so many associate with money getting, stock-yards and other great commercial enterprises, finds time to work out a plan of city beautification.

It embodies this plan in a text book and offers it for study in the schools. Thus citizens wielding an active power in city management and the citizen of teen age find unfolded before them a plan to make Chicago "The City Beautiful."

A MAN may be elected to high office, he may win a Thanksgiving turkey, he may find a quarter in an old vest he had abandoned, he may even find a laudatory article about himself in the home town paper, but it's not equal to the elation a man feels when the wife of his bosom presents him with his first baby son.

It's a great game country, this region of the 10,000 lakes. A flock of 700 Canada geese flew about Big Pelican lake and two Pequot men, Ike and Ben Anderson, bagged seven of the honkers, each weighing about 12 pounds. They secured their trophies at Gooseberry Island in the vicinity of Breezy Point Lodge.

IN connection with the 1923 sale of Christmas Seals, Dr. C. L. Schofield, president of the Minnesota Public Health association, calls to the attention of Minnesotans the wonderful progress made in the fight against tuberculosis. In 1922, there were saved 1,145 lives in this state.

AFTER a period of Thanksgiving feasting, it did not become a matter of privation to taper down to Near East rations last Sunday and give the balance saved to the little orphans.

FATHER WINTER's delay in fastening his icy grip on Minnesota has cost the highway commission a lot of money in keeping roads open.

AUTO owners in Minnesota will have blue tags with white numbers in 1924 and will also face an upward revision of taxes.

It's not often that you run across a bald headed barber pressing the sale of hair tonics on a customer.

FIRPO's stories given the Argentine folks are evidently for home consumption.

Goats and Women.

According to the ancient records of York county, preserved in the courthouse at Alfred, Me., goats and women were not allowed on the Isles of Shoals. One fisherman brought his wife there, at the same time importing some goats. Lengthy legal battles were waged concerning the matter. Finally it was settled that the goats must go but the wife could stay.

Warning!

On account of the delicate subject and scenes, men and women will not be admitted together to see this picture.

"Her Reputation"

In "Her Reputation," Thomas H. Ince has given the fan world the first realistic picture of the inside workings of the newspaper game ever filmed.

The entire plant of a Los Angeles daily was used as a "location," with the employees working as "extras." As a result, some of the finest realism ever caught by the cameras is depicted in "Her Reputation" which will be shown at the New Park on Wednesday and Thursday.

Working in the noisy shop with the "click" of the matrices as they fell into place in the linotype machine, the odor of burning metal, the pungent smell of printers' ink, the apertured men before their type forms; or up in the editorial rooms where the city editor "slashed" or O. K.'ed the stories that reporters pounded out on their typewriters — Director

WILLMAR FARMERS SECURITY STATE BANK IS CLOSED

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Dec. 11.—The Farmers Security State bank of Willmar was closed today by order of A. J. Viegel, state superintendent of banks.

Depleted reserves was given as the reason for the action.

Floorless Bridge.

New Mexico boasts of a unique automobile bridge, believed to be the first of its kind in the world. The bridge was constructed by a mail and passenger stage line to span the Macho, a creek on the route. The beams were thrown across the chasm, with no other support than the banks. Hence no concern need be had for freshets. Moreover, to save expense, as well as to secure a most effective cattle guard, no floor was laid. The automobile that traverses this bridge practically runs on a track. The track is constructed in the form of two shallow, narrow troughs, so that the tires fit in, with no danger of the machine meeting disaster. The drivers cross the bridge at full speed, with no more concern than if the bridge were of the usual sort. Nervous passengers do not enjoy this feature of the ride, however. In length the bridge is sixty-four feet and has proved most satisfactory.

Haddon Hall.

Haddon Hall is a famous mansion in Derbyshire, England, 23 miles northwest of Derby, which has been occupied successfully by the Avenells, Vernons, and Rutlands. The building is in an excellent state of preservation, and represents three different orders of architecture—the Pointed Gothic, the Tudor, and the Elizabethan. No additions to the structure have been made since the Sixteenth century. Reference to Haddon Hall is made in Sir Walter Scott's "Peveril of the Peak."

Breeding Snakes.

The breeding of snakes has become a recognized industry. The skin of the snake is used in making many leather novelties, while the fat of the snake's carcass yields an oil which is valued in the treatment of muscular rheumatism. Even for the snake's venom there is a market, since it has a recognized medicinal value and finds a ready sale among physicians and chemists.

OUCH! ACHING JOINTS RUB RHEUMATIC PAIN

St. Jacobs' Oil stops any pain, and rheumatism is pain only.

Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Stop drugging! Rub soothing, penetrating St. Jacobs' Oil right into your sore, stiff, aching joints, and relief comes instantly. St. Jacobs' Oil is a harmless rheumatism liniment, which never disappoints, and cannot burn the skin.

Linger up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest St. Jacobs' Oil at any drug store, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic pain, soreness and stiffness. Don't suffer. Relief awaits you. St. Jacobs' Oil is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains.

Kellogg's Bran is prepared to do one thing—AND DO IT WELL!

Kellogg's Bran will permanently relieve constipation, mild or chronic. It is scientifically prepared for that purpose. It is ALL BRAN, therefore it has the necessary bulk to assure results. Foods with a small bran content cannot afford permanent relief.

When your physician or friends advise you to eat Kellogg's Bran, you follow on for the purpose of eliminating a dangerous clogging-up and toxic condition of your system. You can't afford to take half-way measures! Think of the lost time and the dangers of illness you are daily dodging!

What you must have is real bran—KELLOGG'S BRAN, and if you will eat it regularly each day you will become a different person within a week or so. Kellogg's Bran, with its natural bulk, sweeps, cleanses and purifies. It not only gives relief, but it regulates the bowels. Every member of your family should eat it—every day—at least two tablespoonfuls; in chronic cases as much with each meal.

Try Kellogg's Bran mixed with a hot cereal, or cook it with hot cereals, adding two tablespoonfuls of Bran for each person. Other popular ways are to sprinkle Kellogg's Bran on hot or cold cereals or to eat it as a cereal with hot milk. You can make delicious bakery products with Kellogg's Bran. Recipes on every package.

Kellogg's Bran is not only nationally sold in grocery stores, but can be had in individual packages in first-class hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant. Be certain to eat Kellogg's Bran daily for health's sake!

Let Your Troubles Roll Away

Every time you buy a load of ordinary coal, the empty truck rolls away with so many dollars of your money. Furthermore, you will find you have bought a certain amount of trouble along with your coal.

Now, CONSOLIDATION ELKHORN and ZEIGLER NUT are coals of hard, firm structure. They do not break easily, and thus eliminate your loss from that source.

Furthermore, when put into your bin, they do not fill the house with dirt, and eliminate trouble from that source. The next time they take an empty coal truck away from your place, why not make sure they leave the money, and take the trouble with them.

You can do this by ordering CONSOLIDATION ELKHORN or ZEIGLER NUT. If you have any doubts, try them on our recommendation. Send us your order and be convinced.

The Electric Cleaner That Gets the Dirt

BRAINERD ELECTRIC CO.

Corner 6th and Laurel Sts.

Miss Mansfield does the best work of her career in this special.

It is regretted to hear of her death last week in a Texas hospital, due to the carelessness of a member of her company with which she was working, dropping a cigarette which set her gown on fire, resulting in her death a few hours later.

"The Silent Command," will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre last time tonight.

SCENE FROM "SOME WILD OATS"

"Some Wild Oats" at New Park Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 17th and 18th

On account of the delicate subject and scenes, men and women will not be admitted together to see "Some Wild Oats." The time for special shows and reels for women only, and special shows and reels for men only, will soon be announced. Children under 16 years of age will not be admitted.

Cowboys' Art Special

Demonstrating that the cowboys of France understand the handling of horses and cattle as well as their professional brothers in America, Charles de Roche, a French actor appearing in Paramount pictures, mounted an American horse, cut an American steer out of a herd, drove him into camp and "bull dogged" him in the best approved Franco-American manner. Comes to the Lyceum Theatre tomorrow.

May McAvoy in "Her Reputation"

In "Her Reputation," Thomas H. Ince has given the fan world the first realistic picture of the inside workings of the newspaper game ever filmed.

The entire plant of a Los Angeles daily was used as a "location," with the employees working as "extras." As a result, some of the finest realism ever caught by the cameras is depicted in "Her Reputation" which will be shown at the New Park on Wednesday and Thursday.

Working in the noisy shop with the "click" of the matrices as they fell into place in the linotype machine, the odor of burning metal, the roar of the cylinder presses, the pungent smell of printers' ink, the apportioned men before their type forms; or up in the editorial rooms where the city editor "slashed" or O. K.'ed the stories that reporters pounded out on their typewriters—Director

Civic & Commerce Association Members to Name Candidates for Various Officers

AT WEDNESDAY'S MEETING

New Bylaws Adopted Have Greatly Simplified Election Procedure

The meeting of the Civic and Commerce Association, scheduled for Wednesday evening, is a very important one, because of the fact that it will be "Nomination Night," for the purpose of naming candidates for the various officers and for the board of directors.

The practice of past years, which required the signatures of a number of members on a nomination blank, was posted on the bulletin board for a certain length of time previous to the annual meeting, thus putting the candidates name in nomination, has been relegated to the scrap heap. In its place new bylaws have been adopted which simplifies the election of officers considerably.

The new method now employed, provides that the first meeting in December shall be the nomination meeting, at which two candidates for each office and two for each member on the board of directors shall be nominated, to be voted upon at the annual meeting two weeks later.

The nomination is conducted along the lines of a primary election, to obtain two names for the office of president, first, second and third vice presidents, treasurer, and the seven members of the board of directors. Two candidates for each of these positions, will necessitate the obtaining of twenty-four names, of which half will be elected to office at the annual meeting.

At the Wednesday meeting, there will also be submitted the reports of several special committees, which are said to be very important. Under the head of "New Business" there are one or two matters which will be brought to the attention of the association, that should interest every member, and one that it is believed will receive the support of all.

President H. P. Dunn stresses the importance of this meeting, and the necessity of a representative attendance. It is hoped that careful consideration will be given to the selection of the new officers.

Peanut Oil.

Peanut oil is one of the prime necessities of the Chinese in South China, and means as much to them as olive oil to the Spaniard and as lard to the American. It is the cooking oil and foodstuff of the race. Consul Lelroy Webber reports from Hongkong that both imports and exports of the oil at Hongkong are steadily increasing. During the first quarter of 1923 imports reached the high total of $738,796, and exports $571,920. Large stocks of peanut oil are always maintained in Hongkong. Most of the local oil is crushed from nuts grown in the colony. In South China and in North China. Exports are shipped chiefly to nearby markets in South China, the Straits Settlement, the United States, Indo-China, Siam, the Philippines and Canada.

Dogmatic Man "Frequently Wrong."

Nothing can be more unphilosophical than to be positive or dogmatic on any subject; and even if excessive scepticism could be maintained it would not be more destructive to all just reasoning and inquiry. When men are the most sure and arrogant they are commonly the most mistaken.—Hume.

FIRE AT BACKUS BURNS BAILEY STORE

It is reported that a fire of unknown origin destroyed the John Bailey department store at Backus Monday night, the building and stock being a total loss.

Trainmen coming into Brainerd today stated that they heard that when Mr. Bailey entered the burning building to get his books from the safe, he found the safe door open and the money, placed therein when the store was closed, gone.

It was reported that an attempt was made on the same night to blow the vault in the bank near the Bailey store, but this report is not confirmed.

John Bailey was in business in Brainerd in the early days, and will be remembered by many local people.

GOOD LITERATURE

Boys Everywhere Can Have Same If They Subscribe to "Boy's Life" Magazine

One hundred thousand dollars has been donated to a movement to bring good, clean literature within the reach of boys everywhere throughout America—boys' literature—the kind their active spirits demand.

A generous donor has made this sum available. It has been placed at the disposal of the Boy Scouts of America. They will use it to get such authors as Rudyard Kipling, Zane Grey, Arthur B. Reeve, Walter Camp, and Dr. Geo. L. Knapp, to write for the National Boy Scout magazine—Boys' Life, which already reaches 100,000 of the youth of the nation.

Many other famous writers will be enlisted in the movement.

The program is based on sound boy psychology. It is recognized that red-blooded boys must have a thrill to their reading. They are natural hero worshipers. And they must have hero material if they are to grow inside of themselves the stuff that heroes are made of. They demand the story that packs a punch. And such literature is clean and wholesome—stories of adventure, hardship and peril; the romance of history; stories of thrilling sports, and games with the grip. The kind of stuff that the boy-in-the-man-and-the-man-in-the-boy always have and always will want.

Then another group of writers has been interested. Douglas Fairbanks tells boys how he keeps in prime, physical condition all the time—and how he does his stunts. Leaders and stars of sportdom will write on "playing the game." Authorities on boys' lore—hobbies—will write on canoeing, camping, fishing, radio, handicraft, photography, stamp collecting—on all the myriad of things in which boys are interested.

Dan Beard, perhaps the best known out-of-doors man in America, who is National Scout Commissioner, is to continue telling how to make and do things for living the life in the open, and the Chief Scout Executive, James E. West, will continue to edit the official news page.

The whole movement means an advancement of the standards and a broadening of the scope of the national scout publication so that it cannot fail to supply the clean, wholesome reading, real literature, that a boy's spirit craves.

STATE FORESTERS BUSY IN WINTER

Function Just as Much in That Season as in the Warmer Months

WINTER WORK IS THE HARDER
Much State Owned Land in North From Which Timber is Sold Loggers

The state forestry department, which in the minds of many functions mostly during the warmer months, is just as active through the winter, says E. H. Rhodes, forest ranger in charge of the Brainerd district.

If any comparison were to be made, the winter work is the harder, stated the ranger, due to cold weather and snow. Mr. Rhodes is now out on a timber marking campaign, the purpose of which is to protect the young growth of timber, and save what is considered a rapidly diminishing asset.

There is a large portion of the territory in the northern part of Minnesota that is state owned land, the merchantable timber on which is sold to the logging companies each year. If the state did not place certain restrictions on the timber that is to be taken out by these companies, and the manner in which it is logged, much damage would be done to young timber that is not ready for marketing, it is pointed out.

For this reason, the foresters go through the state lands and mark the timber that the logging companies are allowed to cut, thus limiting their activities and preserving the smaller trees. This is the work in which Mr. Rhodes is now engaged, and which will occupy his time at least until the holidays, possibly through most of the winter.

In addition to the timber marking, the forest rangers are engaged during the winter months in surveying the territory in which they operate, and in collecting data which will assist them in combating fires that may start in their district.

Dick Willems, Mr. Rhodes' assistant, is on this work now. He is making a detailed survey of the territory surrounding Brainerd in the eighty townships under Mr. Rhodes' supervision. From this survey maps will be made of each township, containing valuable information for the efficient handling of fires.

On these maps will be shown the topography of the township, the location of all highways, ditches, telephone lines, swamps, lakes and streams. The location of the settler's homes, marked in such a way that it will be known whether or not they have a telephone, and showing what facilities the settler has for fire-fighting, such as teams, automobiles, etc.

In addition to the survey and the maps made, the entire district is carefully organized by the forest ranger, into a great fire department, and instructed in the methods of combating the fires that may arise in their township.

One man in each township is chosen as fire supervisor. Usually the chairman of the town board is given this position. Then the township is divided into four equal parts, and a foreman chosen in each part. For this position a settler who is centrally located and who has a telephone is chosen.

With such an organization, and with the aid of the information obtainable from the maps made, forest fires can be effectively combated and much accomplished in a short time that would be impossible otherwise.

All of this organization and mapping is winter work, says the ranger, and requires a great deal of time, both in the office and out in the district, so that when summer comes, everything will be in readiness for fires that may develop.

A phonograph or piano will help keep the children at home. Hall's big sale now on. 15916

United Press Sports Editor

New York, Dec. 11.—Boxing, of the many popular American sports, is on the defensive most of the time. It is criticized more than any other sport and it deserves some of the defamatory things said about it. Oratorical defenses mean nothing and it is rather sad that its most used defensive argument is its silliness—"the manly art of self-defense."

Arguments that every one should learn how to box so as to be able to knock out a thug when attacked and endorsements of the game founded on assertions that boxing won the war are absurd.

Boxers themselves know that.

One of the present world's champions, also one of the best educated and most mentally fit of them all, was approached recently by the representative of a syndicate with an offer to write his life and a series of instructions on boxing.

He was not interested and he was frank about it.

"It would be a source of very little revenue in the first place," he said. "And then also I am not stupid enough to think that I am so much of a personage that the public would be interested in reading about my life. I do not believe it could be done with modesty."

"Also, I would not write a series of instructions on boxing. I do not want to teach anyone to box, or to recommend it as a profession. There is no such a thing as boxing. It is fighting and the purpose of it is to make money. I would not teach a son of mine to fight and I do not want to be instrumental in encouraging the son of another to get into the business."

"I would be willing to teach a youngster how to keep himself physically fit, teach him how to develop himself and how to retain his health and vigor. I would like to do that, but it can never be done because to carry out the instructions it would entail some sacrifices. Such lessons never would be a success, because boys won't follow advice of that kind."

TITLE HOLDER'S BODY ATTACK EARNS DECISION

Tunney Forces Fight

Tunney forced the fighting from the start despite frequent and spectacular rallies by Greb. He checked the effectiveness of the challenger's peculiar attack and gradually weakened the Pittsburgher with a ripping, crushing drive to the ribs and stomach.

Greb Bewilders Champ

At times Greb's tactics bewildered the champion, but though the challenger often landed with long swings to the jaw and body, they seldom stopped the champion's steady body fire. Tunney had Greb in distress in several of the closing rounds but in the 15th Greb unleashed a furious attack that threatened for a moment to topple the champion.

Harry Sets Pace

Setting a terrific pace in the closing rounds, Greb pummeled Tunney on the head and body, jarring the champion to his heels with several smashes. But it was Greb's last desperate stand, and it failed to counterbalance the wide margin Tunney had piled up on points.

Third Clash

It was the third clash between the pair for the American 175-pound title. Greb won it from Tunney last year but lost it to the Greenwich village idol last March, both prior bouts also going to the limit. Tunney weighed 175 and Greb 171½ pounds.

Briton Outweighed

Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia light-heavyweight, was awarded the judges' decision over Roland Todd, British wearer of the European middleweight championship, in a 10-round semi-final. Loughran's advantage in height, weight and reach overcame the Briton's boxing skill and gameness. Loughran weighed 168½ and Todd 159½.

FREEDMAN, SCHLAIFER BOUT IS CALLED OFF

Omaha, Dec. 11.—A proposed 10-round bout between Morrie Schlaifer, Omaha welterweight, and Sailor Freedman of Chicago, which was to have been held here on Dec. 17, was called off following an account of a poor showing Freedman is reported to have made in New York in a fight with Herb Brodie of Brooklyn.

HORNSBY BATS CHRISTMAS TREE PROFITS AWAY

St. Louis, Dec. 11.—Rogers Hornsby, star batsman of the National league, has "batted" away big profits of Christmas tree dealers by flooding the local market.

It was explained that usually about 31 carloads of Yuletide trees are sold in St. Louis, so the commission merchants got together and bought 23 carloads. "Several days ago the price of a good sized tree was $3. Then it was discovered that Hornsby had bought seven carloads for local sale and the price dropped to $1.25."

Hornsby, when asked about the matter today, replied:

"Business is pretty good."

United Press Sports Editor

New York, Dec. 11.—Boxing, of the many popular American sports, is on the defensive most of the time. It is criticized more than any other sport and it deserves some of the defamatory things said about it. Oratorical defenses mean nothing and it is rather sad that its most used defensive argument is its silliest—"the manly art of self-defense."

Arguments that every one should learn how to box so as to be able to knock out a thug when attacked and endorsements of the game founded on assertions that boxing won the war are absurd.

Boxers themselves know that.

One of the present world's champions, also one of the best educated and most mentally fit of them all, was approached recently by the representative of a syndicate with an offer to write his life and a series of instructions on boxing.

He was not interested and he was frank about it.

"It would be a source of very little revenue in the first place," he said. "And then also I am not stupid enough to think that I am so much of a personage that the public would be interested in reading about my life. I do not believe it could be done with modesty."

"Also, I would not write a series of instructions on boxing. I do not want to teach anyone to box, or to recommend it as a profession. There is no such thing as boxing. It is fighting and the purpose of it is to make money. I would not teach a son of mine to fight and I do not want to be instrumental in encouraging the son of another to get into the business."

"I would be willing to teach a youngster how to keep himself physically fit, teach him how to develop himself and how to retain his health and vigor. I would like to do that, but it can never be done because to carry out the instructions it would entail some sacrifices. Such lessons never would be a success, because boys won't follow advice of that kind."

Tunney Forces Fight
Tunney forced the fighting from the start despite frequent and spectacular rallies by Greb. He checked the effectiveness of the challenger's peculiar attack and gradually weakened the Pittsburgher with a ripping crushing drive to the ribs and stomach.

Greb Bewilders Champ
At times Greb's tactics bewildered the champion, but though the challenger often landed with long swings to the jaw and body, they seldom stopped the champion's steady body fire. Tunney had Greb in distress in several of the closing rounds but in the 15th Greb unleashed a furious attack that threatened for a moment to topple the champion.

Harry Sets Pace
Setting a terrific pace in the closing rounds, Greb pummeled Tunney on the head and body, jarring the champion to his heels with several smashes. But it was Greb's last desperate stand, and it failed to counterbalance the wide margin Tunney had piled up on points.

It was the third clash between the pair for the American 175-pound title. Greb won it from Tunney last year but lost it to the Greenwich village idol last March, both prior bouts also going to the limit. Tunney weighed 175 and Greb 171½ pounds.

Briton Outweighed
Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia light-heavyweight, was awarded the judges' decision over Roland Todd, British wearer of the European middleweight championship, in a 10-round semi-final. Loughran's advantage in height, weight and reach overcame the Briton's boxing skill and gameness. Loughran weighed 168½ and Todd 159½.
